

EDMUND SANDERSON JEFF FARM TRAINING AWARD 2019

TELFORD

1. History

The Salvation Army own and manage (through a farm board) a substantial holding in the Kaiwera District near Gore, running nearly 30,000 stock units, comprising of Romney sheep, mixed breeding and finishing cattle and an increasing red deer herd.

This property was bequeathed to The Salvation Army many years ago by the late Mr Jeff with some conditions, the principal clause being that “the farm and farm profits be used for the training of under-privileged youths in farming.”

The Salvation Army is very pleased to honour the wishes of Mr Jeff by offering The Jeff Farm Training Award to eligible applicants.

2. Objectives

The Jeff Farm Training Award is to assist young people in furthering their education in aspects of farming including; agriculture, horticulture, orcharding and animal husbandry, either general or specialised.

Please note that this award does not cover equine or viticulture as these are outside of the stipulation of the bequest.
