THE SALVATION ARMY NEW ZEALAND, FIJI AND TONGA: BICULTURAL STATEMENT

Te Tiriti o Waitangi (The Treaty of Waitangi) is the foundation of bicultural partnership between Māori and Tauwi (non-Māori New Zealanders) in Aotearoa New Zealand. This partnership has had a troubled pathway, with complex and often painful histories since the Treaty was signed in 1840.

The Salvation Army is firmly committed to honouring the principles of partnership, protection and participation inherent in Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

PARTNERSHIP | New Zealand was founded on the basis of bicultural partnership. The Salvation Army aims to work together with Māori in all church and social service settings, involving and supporting each other.

PROTECTION | The inequalities that exist between Māori and Tauwi in New Zealand cause Māori to face considerable challenges and hardships. The Salvation Army strives to see Māori protected from the social and economic causes of inequality so they can achieve the best possible outcomes for themselves in their own land.

PARTICIPATION | The Salvation Army greatly values the many Māori serving within The Salvation Army as church leaders, staff and volunteers. These individuals enrich The Salvation Army as a movement and strengthen its mission.

TE NGĀKAU-NUI HŌU NEW ZEAL

Around New Zealand, Fiji, Tonga and Samoa there is a growing desire for a move of the Holy Spirit which will empower our Army. New Zeal is the response to that desire. On Sunday 21 October we are launching a year-long season of 'New Zeal', pursuing spiritual power by an encounter with God.

We will stream a New Zeal event from Wellington City Corps building with Commissioner Andy Westrupp speaking. This service will be live streamed to locations across the territory including the hui, using modern technology. It will also be recorded.

ACTS 10:44

While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came on all who heard the message.

I a Pita ano e korero ana i enei kupu, ka tau iho te Wairua Tapu ki te hunga katoa e whakarongo ana ki te kupu.
